

Hotel Hotel, Lisbon

WILD AT HEART

Hotel Hotel is an urban oasis where creative locals and travellers mingle. Several Portuguese artists and designers have sprinkled their magic here, and the result is a new hotel that's a spacious, peaceful, colourful hideaway from the city that's located right in the heart of it. The nerve centre of Hotel Hotel is its funky inner courtyard with a lush garden, swimming pool, sunbeds and exotic murals. Furthermore, the hotel offers yoga classes, meditation workshops and live music. And let's not forget to mention the hotel's restaurant, Animal, which serves excellent food. Fun fact: Although Hotel Hotel has just opened its doors, it's already planning to build a music studio, and might even add a tattoo shop. hotelhotel.pt
